Extended retailer text

Having a BBQ in your backyard, want to speech at your company's party or do you want to play music at the sidelines of a sporting event? Then you need the Trust Urban Fiësta Plus Wireless speaker! The Fiësta Plus produces powerful sound, has an internal battery that lasts your entire party, is very portable and can be used with your tablet, smartphone or laptop.

Portable

Thanks to two wheels and a retractable handle the Fiësta Plus Wireless Speaker is easy to move around. The Fiësta Plus can also be picked up by the two handles on the side. The speaker is solidly built, so you can transport it to any place without worrying about damaging it.

Internal battery

The Fiësta Plus has an internal battery which lasts from 5 to 50 hours depending on the volume. The battery is easily recharged by the included power cable. If your battery runs out during a party, you can continue to use the speaker by connecting it to a power socket.

Charge your phone or tablet

This speaker will last longer than any tablet or smartphone, but this will not stop you from listening to your music! The solution to an empty battery is already built in: the Fiësta Plus features a USB port that allows you to charge your tablet or smartphone while listening to your music. Simply plug a cable from your tablet or smartphone in the speaker and you will always have sufficient power. Once connected you can easily place your tablet or smartphone in the holder on top of the speaker.

Sound

With 50 watts output power the Fiësta Plus offers more than enough power to provide every party or occasion with full sound and powerful bass. The volume of the Fiësta Plus is adjustable through the master volume or for each channel. So you can put your microphone volume up or down comparing to the music.

Connections

Connect your smartphone, tablet, laptop or MP3 player easily through Bluetooth or by using the included 3.5mm cable. The Fiësta Plus Wireless Speaker also has a connector for the included microphone.

The Fiësta Plus is the ideal speaker for any situation. Whether you want to use the speaker for karaoke with friends, playing your favourite music at your birthday party or want to speech at a wedding, the Fiësta Plus is the ultimate sound solution. Its versatile, mobile and powerful!
