Bluetooth for that unplugged experience. No Bluetooth available? Use the included 3.5mm cable to make a wired connection. To charge the headphones, plug in the included USB cable and you're on your way again in no-time.

Individual style

What is clear sound without an eye-catching design? The outstanding raw materials give these headphones a unique look. It is the perfect accessory to finish your personal style.

Media control

With the Fyber, you have full control over your music. Change, play and pause the current track and even pick up your incoming calls with conveniently placed buttons on the headphones. You are in control of your media!

Fold away

When you're not using the Fyber Headphones, you can easily take them with you thanks to their flexible design. Fold the earcups inwardly and you can safely store the headphones anywhere you want. This makes them ideal for on the road! Detach the wire to store separately so it won't get tangled up with the headphone. You can easily take the Fyber anywhere with you to never miss a beat!
