Extended retailer text	Just getting started as a DJ and looking for a great headset to work with? With the Trust DJ-350 headset you will get every party started. Give a live performance for family and friends, record your latest musical creations or simply enjoy your music.

Great sound

The 50mm drivers reproduce all your music's dynamics and deliver the controlled bass that every DJ needs and the headset offers you a 105 dB sensitivity. Combine that with a closed-back design and you're all set for a great performance!

Spin the records anywhere

Thanks to the extension cable and adapter provided, you can plug the headphone into your laptop, smartphone, tablet or DJ gear. Use the extension cable to connect the headset to your PC. Or plug the headset into your DJ gear with the included 6.35mm adapter plug.

Party all night

Thanks to the comfortable, noise-isolating and adjustable headband, the one-sided cable and the lightweight design of this great headset, you're ready for an all night long party or producing session without being bothered by your headset.
