headphones are securely kept in place during your workout. Put on your favourite music and use them for hours while running or going to the gym. Not in an active mood? The perfect fit and high quality sound makes them also great for daily work trips or for usage while studying! You'll find 2 extra pairs of ear shells in the packaging to make sure there is always a pair that fits your ears best.

Wireless sound

Nothing as unpleasant as a tangled cable, specially while working out. To be able to fully focus on your activity, the Sila Wireless Earphones work with Bluetooth technology, meaning you can wirelessly connect your phone. Whether you are running or on your bike, there is no cable in the way bothering you. With a 10m wireless range your free to move around without losing the connection.

In-line remote

The Sila Wireless Earphones don't just provide you comfort and a great sound. The in-line remote allows you to pick-up incoming calls, play/pause your music and navigate through your music. Background noise will be reduced for clear voice during phone calls, e.g. when you're running upwind.
