comfortable, that you will forget you are wearing it! Thanks to the foldable ear pads, this lightweight headphone will easily fit in your bag or suitcase.

Always in control

No need to take your phone out of your pocket. Control your music with the buttons on the headphone, switch tracks or pause the song. With the build-in microphone you can easily pick up calls and enjoy hands-free calling while hiking or biking.

Wireless

The Leva Bluetooth headphone enables wireless operation with up to 10 meters. Thanks to the buttons on the headphone, you can easily control the volume. This way, your phone doesn't have to be close to you to enjoy your music. Walk around your living room while your phone is charging or keep your phone safely in your bag while working out at the gym.

Although the headphone features Bluetooth technology, a wired 3.5mm connection is possible as well (3.5 mm connection included). This way, you can also use the headphone with devices that don't support Bluetooth.

Stay connected

The Leva headphone is rechargeable by USB and provides you up to 8 hours of playtime. You can stay connected and listen to your favorite music all the time!
