Extended retailer text

The Trust Kolla Neckband-Style Wireless headset will change the way you listen to music: the special, lightweight design of the neckband ensures wireless movements. You can keep going continuously with the deep bass listening experience.

Untangled fun

The Kolla plays your workout beat wirelessly via Bluetooth with a range of 10 meters. Connect your phone and you will not be bothered by tangled wires that keep interfering with your movements. Whether you're enjoying fresh air outside or dancing to your favourite music, you won't be limited anymore!

Secure fit

The design of the earphones features metal in-ear, closed back ear plugs which offers a secure fit for all the activities you have planned for that day. The flexible, slender neckband makes sure the earbuds stay securely in your ears. The package contains three sizes ear shells to guarantee the earbuds will fit you perfectly. The magnetic earbuds and flat wires will keep the headset organized and untangled when you stow it away.

Take control

The buttons and built-in microphone on the headset allow for accessible media control. You can navigate easily through your music and adjust the volume for an optimal listening experience in any setting. Even when you're on the move you don't have to take out your phone to pick up a call!

Protect and recharge

The headset has up to 22 hours of playtime on a single charge for uninterrupted action. The headset goes into standby-mode after 5 minutes to save battery and is easily recharged with the included USB cable.
