Extended retailer text

The Trust Mida Bluetooth Keyboard with XL touchpad allows you to go couch surfing in your own home. You can easily control your laptop, PC, Smart TV, tablet or console with this slim and wireless keyboard for modern day use, directly from the comfort of your own couch!

Comfortable control

The thin keyboard has a compact, space-saving design but still provides a comfortable typing experience. It has low-profile keys which require only little force to press. The extra-large touchpad has the same functionality as a regular mouse and is used for easy and quick surfing. It features two buttons to manage your connected devices. This makes the keyboard perfectly suitable for versatile use.

Multimedia use

The Mida Bluetooth Keyboard features 14 multimedia keys. These work with iOS, Android and 13 of these work with Windows. You can now browse the web, post social media updates and send emails with one click of a button: effortless control is key!

Across-the-room-use

The keyboard comes with wireless range of up to 10 meters. The built-in battery lasts up to two weeks depending on your usage. The keyboard can easily be turned on/off with the power switch.
