Marketing

Extended retailer text	Shine brighter with the Trust Wireless Presenter with a green laser. You can deliver your message optimally with this functional presenter. You can now prevent distraction in your audience when moving from slide to slide. Your presentation will be on point! Go green The wireless presenter features a green laser pointer. Since a green laser is 10 times brighter than a red one, it is visible on all screens, including TVs, monitors and beamer screens. You don't have to walk towards the screens to point something out anymore. In one smooth movement, your audience will know what you're aiming at.

Slide through

The presenter includes various PowerPoint and slideshow functions. In this way, you can easily start and stop your presentation or go the next or previous slide. You can also easily change the volume of your audio or switch to a black screen when necessary.

Always on point

Want to start your presentation? Simply plug the receiver into a USB port and you can start scrolling through your sheets. The wireless receiver allows you to move around freely while presenting within a range of 15 meters. When you are finished with your presentation, you can easily store the receiver in the presenter. It is the perfect accessory to have in your bag at all times.
