Extended retailer text	Travel Buddy The Trust Miro will be your favourite travel buddy. This compact Bluetooth speaker is water resistant, has a durable design, can be used both wirelessly and via cable or memory card, and it can be linked to another Miro to really boost your party. Music Anywhere
------------------------	--

Play your favourite tracks, anywhere in the world. The Trust Miro is small and comes with a strap cord, while the sturdy design with the durable fabric keep it safe. The Miro is water resistant and has an IPX7 certification, which means you can easily take it to the pool or the slopes. A little water will not put an abrupt stop to your party.

Boost Your Party

By connecting your phone with your Trust Miro via Bluetooth, you'll be in complete control of your private party. Just use your favourite streaming service, select a playlist and go! You will even use the Miro to make phone calls thanks to the built-in microphone. And if your party isn't that private, just link the Miro with a second, optional Miro to really boost your music.

14 Hours of Playtime

With the Miro, you can easily choose your connection. If you don't want to use Bluetooth, just connect your phone, tablet or MP3 player to the Miro via an AUX cable. Or insert a micro-SD card filled with MP3's into the card reader of this small speaker. The rechargeable battery will last for up to 14 hours of playtime, so choose your connection and enjoy the music.
